

To the concerned parties,

I truly value obtaining Internet service from the independent ISP, Sonic.net, because they are local, very knowledgeable and reliable, and have very positive impact on our community. BellSouth's request would affect consumers in this area very negatively, giving us fewer choices for broadband.

Thank you,

Edy Dawson Yoro